SOLICITOR/VENDOR PERMIT RULES

The person/company issued a permit from the police chief is/are required to abide by the following:

1. Everyone going door to door is required to have a copy of the solicitors permit in their possession and to present it to anyone who requests to see the permit.
2. Only individuals listed on the permit are permitted to solicit door to door. Anyone not listed on the permit found soliciting would be cause for the individual and or company permit to be immediately revoked by a police officer.
3. Solicitors are required to stop at the police department daily and advise them which area of town they will be soliciting in and which vehicles will be used.
4. If the police department receives any complaint from a resident regarding the demeanor of a solicitor, the person that the permit is issued to will be notified by the police department and the individual and company permit will be revoked immediately.
5. Solicitors must wear company identification cards.
6. The valid start time and end time listed on the permit shall be adhered to. Any violation of the start or end time will be cause for the permit to be immediately revoked.
7. Criminal record checks are conducted. Anyone with a record of concern will be denied a solicitor's permit.
8. The Chief of Police, as the issuing authority of solicitor permits reserves the right to deny, revoke or suspend any application for a solicitor permit and or any permit issued.
